Testimonial

Olivia Gong is a truly amazing and gifted coach! I just had a 2-day session with her and it has been absolutely life changing for me. Finally, after all these years, with her guidance and such focused attention, I was able to fully understand and love the person I am today. With her breakthrough, we were able to dig deep and find the missing piece, and from it I was able to see how it all links together from my childhood and all throughout my life.

I've always clinged onto and reflected on my past, for happy and nostalgic memories, to sad and regretful pain points. It felt like an escape to golden times, as well as a burden I carried forward. And with the challenges of life, I've felt overwhelmed, stressed, and drowning in negativity. I've had sessions and talks with others, and although it uncovered new clues and provided some relief, it felt like the mystery of my past remained unsolved. And because of it, my outlook towards my life, myself, my relationships, my work, my health, remained uncertain, pessimistic, detached, and incomplete.

However during my session with Olivia, she listened, studied, and dug deep to find the root cause of what has ailed me. And with that, she found the key that unlocked the mystery to my past! It instantly flowed a river of joyful tears from my eyes, because the missing piece to my understanding of myself and my life was finally discovered, and I became complete again. It was such a profound and beautiful experience and I felt all the relief in the world as all my linked problems were dissolved and my burdens and pain fell off my shoulders. I was able to find pride in myself and my past as there was a much deeper reason to it all. I was finally able to let go and release my past, and even be thankful for it as they were all clues to a fuller understanding of myself and why I am a much more powerful and gifted person than I gave myself credit for. Where I thought I was missing something, I was actually more than complete, gifted, and on a higher level that I and others had misunderstood all along, until now.

Olivia has many techniques and tools in her repertoire, and she has such patience, focus, and even a soothing voice that made the experience deeply relaxing, relieving, and comforting. The crisp clarity I have gained from her has made many beautiful things blossom in my love of life, my relationships with my family and friends, my health, and it has even given such depth to my sleep and dreams. My belief in her and myself is 100%, and it has really helped me to forge Onward in life with true confidence and compassion.

My sincerest thanks to you Olivia in all that you do...and all that you are!

TESTIMONIAL

Olivia is truly God sent! Never have i ever experienced a therapy this effective and powerful. She healed me from my childhood and adult trauma from only a few sessions. Now when i think of my troubled past or those who have hurt me, I no longer feel angry and feel so light and optimistic. I even lost 3 pounds in 1 week after the first healing session!

Other services she offers is MER, Hypnotherapy, and Muscle testing. Olivia will go above and beyond to help you and isn't money driven. She has the purest heart and is so passionate about helping others. She is someone you can truly trust with your life. My only regret is that I didn't see her sooner! I am transformed and can finally live my life because of Olivia!

“

Life changing experience is an understatement to say the least. When I had my first session with Olivia, I wasn't sure what to expect therefore I was very reluctant to sign up at first. Now that I went through my session with Coach O, it was one of the best decisions I've made in this lifetime. The session was very thoughtful and very loving, I genuinely sense the care and guidance throughout the session that made me feel appreciative and comforting. You can truly see the compassion and kindness from every moment during the session therefore it allows you to trust the process and her teaching. It puts a different perspective in how I want to proceed going forward in my life and I am looking forward to more sessions with Coach O in the near future. Thank you !
